

Bitten Twice is an author who writes in the Paranormal Romance and Urban Fantasy genres. She has three published titles, with a fourth pending publication. The Macedo Ink series has been well received by the reader base with five star reviews noting the unique style and twists Bitten's stories carry. The series is a vampire series that doesn't follow a norm with gripping plot lines and relatable characters. The Macedo Ink series hosts A Blood Moon, As Blood Rages, and For Blood Money pending publication. Marked is an independent novel and Bitten offers free reading on her website. Her writing can also be found in collaborations like Search for the Lure of the Vampire with personal essays from the likes of many vampires and authors alike.

In real life, Bitten Twice was born in Guyana, South America. She spent her formative years in Great Britain before coming to America and settling in sunny, South Florida. Courageously in love with one man and two children, together as a family they care for the family's dogs. Bitten holds a Bachelor degree from the University of Phoenix in Business Management.

Bitten Twice can be found on the web on <http://www.bitten2ice.com> , Twitter using screen name @Bitten2ice, and Facebook Author page which can be found at: <https://www.facebook.com/pages/BittenTwice/295323473457>