

Bitten Twice is an author who primarily writes in the paranormal romance and urban fantasy genres. She recently released the first in the Macedo Ink vampire series in October of 2010 and can be found on the web at <http://www.bitten2ice.com>.

Bitten Twice currently lives in Hollywood, FL with her family. Courageously in love with one man and two children, they all take care of the family's two dogs. Bitten is a lifetime member of the Florida Writer's Association and an associate member of International Thriller Writers.